Dear Mr. Smith:

For many years it has been our practice to send "U.S. News & World Report" with our compliments to members of Congress, the federal judiciary, and a small list of officials of the federal executive agencies.

Because of your official position, therefore, your name has been added to the complimentary subscription list to receive "U.S. News & World Report" each week.

We hope and believe you will find these weekly issues of considerable practical value to you in your work.

Should you prefer to have the copies come to your home address, simply jot it down on the lower part of this letter, return the letter to us and the change will be made promptly.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

A. R. Gould
